

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Assistive Technology Fair to be Held on April 23rd, 2025

Hosted by Teacher Trainer Joel Carson and YouthBuild Dayton/Liberty High School Students

Oakwood, Ohio – Wright Memorial Library is set to host an exciting Assistive Technology Fair on April 23rd, 2025, from 11:00 AM to 3:00 PM. This event, organized by teacher trainer Joel Carson and his dedicated YouthBuild Dayton/Liberty High School students, promises to be an enriching experience for all attendees.

The Assistive Technology Fair is free and open to the public, offering a unique opportunity to explore a wide range of assistive devices designed to support individuals with various disabilities. With numerous exhibitors in attendance, visitors will have the chance to learn about the latest advancements in assistive technology and how these innovations can enhance the quality of life for those with disabilities.

"We are thrilled to bring this event to the community and showcase the incredible work being done in the field of assistive technology," said Joel Carson. "Our students have worked tirelessly to organize this fair, and we are excited to share these valuable resources with the public."

The fair will feature demonstrations, hands-on activities, and informative sessions, providing attendees with a comprehensive understanding of the available assistive technologies. Whether you are a caregiver, educator, or someone with a disability, this event offers something for everyone.

Join us at Wright Memorial Library in Oakwood, Ohio, on April 23rd, 2025, from 11:00 AM to 3:00 PM, and discover the transformative power of assistive technology. For more information, please contact Joel Carson at jcarson@rhadayton.com/937-856-1459
