

Ohio Respite Summit

A Summit for Parents and
Other Family Caregivers,
Respite Providers, Community
Groups & Agencies

Friday, MARCH 4, 2011
9:00 AM – 4:00 PM

Ohio Rehabilitation Services Commission
150 E. Campus View Blvd.
Columbus, OH. 43235-4604
(614) 438-1214

The Lifespan Respite Program, funded by the US Administration on Aging, was established to help states expand, enhance, and coordinate respite services. This program includes but is not limited to individuals, families, and children impacted by developmental disabilities, other disabilities, mental health issues, aging, chronic illness, or abuse.

Join us on Friday, March 4, 2011, for this FREE working meeting to learn about Lifespan Respite, coalition building, and to design a coordinated Ohio Respite system.

The event is FREE, but please register online at www.archrespite.org/OhioRespiteSummit or by phone at 513-636-4723.
Space is limited so register early! Complimentary lunch will be provided.

 Financial assistance may be available for parents & family caregivers attending the Summit.
