

OPRA Board Retreat 2012 Evaluation

Average Rating

(4 Point Scale) Session/Component and Evaluation Summary*

3.5	Overall Retreat Over half of the respondents rated the overall retreat as excellent. The overall retreat was rated higher than any single component of the retreat.
Sessions
2.6	Icebreaker 70% of respondents rated the icebreaker as excellent or good, 20% as poor. One respondent recommended skipping the icebreaker. The icebreaker had the lowest average rating.
3.4	Environmental Scan The environmental scan session received the highest rating, with 50% of respondents rating it as excellent. It was tied for the highest average rating.
3.2	Strategic Plan Updates 100% of respondents rated the strategic plan updates as excellent or good. The two strategic plan sessions were the only sessions not receiving a fair or poor rating.
3.4	Strategic Plan Revision The two strategic plan sessions were the only sessions not receiving a fair or poor rating. 100% of respondents said their input was given due consideration in setting the direction of OPRA. The strategic plan revision session was tied for the highest average rating.
2.9	Communication Plan 80% of respondents rated the communication plan session as excellent or good, none as poor.
3.1	Membership and Dues 90% of respondents rated the membership and dues session as excellent or good, none as poor.
3.3	Conferences and Trainings 90% of respondents rated the conferences and trainings session as excellent or good, none as poor.
3.2	Governance 90% of respondents rated the governance session as excellent or good, none as poor.
Components
3.3	Location 82% of respondents rated the location as excellent or good, 9% as poor. One respondent recommended that the next retreat be held in Columbus for proximity's sake.
3.2	Meeting Room 81% of respondents rated the meeting room as excellent or good, 9% as poor.
3.3	Guest Room 89% of respondents rated their guest room as excellent or good, none as poor.
3.2	Food 70% of respondents rated the food as excellent or good, none as poor.
3.9	Board Dinner at Janice's House 100% of respondents rated the board dinner at Janice's house as excellent or good.
3.4	Facilitator 82% of respondents rated the facilitator as excellent or good, 9% as poor. Although ratings were good, comments on the facilitator were mixed.

*Note: for summary purposes, all percentages of respondents are based on total responses minus the "n/a" responses.