

#WhatHappensTomorrow?

Who: The Ohio Medicaid Coalition invites Greater Cincinnati community members to join a discussion around "what happens tomorrow?" to individuals, families, and community partners if proposed changes to the Medicaid program discussed at the federal level are enacted.

What: A community event and press conference where participants can tell their story of how Medicaid has impacted their life. This is an opportunity for individuals who depend on Medicaid for quality health care to educate their fellow community members and neighbors on the services Medicaid provides and advocate for a positive future for the Medicaid program.

When: Tuesday, June 27th, 2017

4:00 PM

Where: United Way of Greater Cincinnati, Convening Center
2400 Reading Road, Cincinnati, Ohio, 45202

Online RSVP is requested but not required:

<https://tinyurl.com/WHTGC>

Contact: Mark Davis

Advocates for Ohio's Future
mdavis@opra.org

