

Save the Dates!

Bridges Out of Poverty
FREE Communitywide Trainings

With national trainers
Jodi Pfarr and Phil DeVol

This training series assists employers, community organizations, social service agencies, and individuals gain insight and strategies to prevent, reduce, and alleviate poverty in our community.

These trainings are for all interested individual community members, including educators, business leaders, government officials, social service providers, healthcare workers, those working in the justice system, and church and community groups.

Cost: FREE for all attendees. Includes all materials, workbooks, coffee and lunch.

Preregistration is required, and space is limited!

When:

Session 1- Strategies for Professionals and Communities (Jodi Pfarr)

Saturday, January 21st, 2017

8:30am-3:30pm

Session 2- Applying Bridges Concepts (Jodi Pfarr)

Saturday, February 25th, 2017

8:30am-3:30pm

Session 3- Bridges to Sustainable Communities (Phil DeVol)

Saturday, March 18th, 2017

8:30am-3:30pm, including a planning session for future action

Where:

Quality Inn Event and Conference Center

700 Pike St., Marietta, OH

Contact Maribeth Saleem-Tanner at oce@marietta.edu or 740-376-4561 with your name, email, phone number, and organization to reserve your spot or for more information.

Reserve by January 13th to guarantee your place!

We are able to offer this training free to interested community members through the Washington County Healthier Buckeye Council with support from an Ohio Healthier Buckeye Grant