

HIPAA for DD Providers

A Practical Guide for Meeting the 2013 Compliance Deadline

IMPORTANT! New HIPAA privacy and breach notification standards published in January 2013 are in effect NOW. Rolf Goffman Martin Lang LLP has developed HIPAA for DD Providers: A Practical Guide for Meeting the 2013 Compliance Deadline to assist DD providers in achieving the mandated compliance.

WHO: All DD providers that are covered entities under HIPAA.

WHAT: The Department of Health and Human Services released a Final Rule on January 25, 2013, that contains many important changes to HIPAA privacy obligations. DD providers need to update their current HIPAA policies and business associate agreements and implement new policies in order to satisfy the requirements.

WHEN: The new rules are in effect now. Providers have until September 23, 2013 to comply with the new requirements.

HOW: Our Practical Guide includes the following tools designed to assist DD providers in achieving compliance:

- A "Steps to Implementation" Checklist;
- "Practical Tips" on issues relevant to DD providers;
- Summaries of changes related to business associate obligations, breaches and notifications, prohibited disclosures, electronic health records, marketing and fundraising communications, and enforcement and civil monetary penalties; and
- Updated policies and procedures, including a revised Notice of Privacy Practices, Business Associate Agreement, Request to Restrict Uses or Disclosures of Health Information, and a Breach Notification Policy and Breach Notification Letter.

WHERE: Ordering online is easy at www.RolfLaw.com/hipaa4dd/, and copies will be mailed upon receipt of online orders. Or you can print out and mail in the Order Form below.
